June 12th to 16th 2019!

The Hastings Fringe Comedy Festival originates from an idea from two local Hastonians Chris and Jake. The free and independent festival showcases a large variety of professional comedians and up-and-coming comics from around the UK and Europe. Shows are performed at various venues throughout Hastings, East Sussex, over five days in June.

McPhersons Client, Hastings Fringe Comedy Festival Ltd, has a big passion for finding, supporting and promoting new comedy talent which is at the core of their ethos of running this festival.

Comedians from all over the UK will bring their Edinburgh Fringe preview shows, tour previews and work in progress to various venues in Hastings and Hastings Old Town.

Shows are free entry with a pay what you want donation to the act after their show. The four headline acts are ticketed but still affordable. These include:

Notflix – Your favourite movies with 100% more songs and 99% more women!;

Tony Law – A Lost Show and;

Dane Baptiste – Chocolate Chip

Once rooms are at capacity there will be no entry, shows start at 7:30pm on Wednesday June 12th. Save the dates as the festival once again promises to be an explosion of laughter.

There's a show for everyone from Stand-up Comedy, Improv, musical acts, satire, sketch groups as well as shows for a younger audience.

If you're looking for the future bright stars of stand up comedy then Hastings is the festival showcase you really shouldn't miss out on.
